Speaker: Swami Ishwarananda, once a software engineer from Bangalore, India, is the current resident acharya of Chinmaya Mission Los Angeles. He has been teaching Vedanta to adults and youth through discourses, workshops, seminars, webinars, and panel discussions for over 20 years. He has also taught Chinmaya Mission's renowned two-year, residential Vedanta Course for acharyas in Mumbai, India.

Swamiji travels throughout North America and around the world, lauded for his knowledge, creativity, logic, humor, and wit. His innovative discourses explain complex philosophical topics with ease and have woven spiritual thought into professional arenas of medicine, administration, and business. He has authored four acclaimed books and continues to share Vedanta through various Internet channels.
